About Me

Hello!

My name is Sinan and I specialize in web developement that utilizes HTML, CSS, JS, and REACT etc.

I am a highly motivated individual and eternal optimist dedicated to writing clear, concise, robust code that works. Striving to never stop learning and improving.

When I'm not coding, I am writing bolgs, reading, or picking up some new hands-on art project like photography.

I like to have my perspective and belief systems challenged so that I see the world through new eyes.

Skills

I am striving to never stop learning and improving

Web Developement
